

Queensland Fruit Fly Response – Grey Lynn 2015

Photos courtesy of KVH Staff

John Mather, KVH, and MPI Director General, Martyn Dunne, check QFF response preparations prior to the NZ vs Australia Cricket World Cup match at Eden Park, held within the Zone B controlled area.

Auckland Council civil defence volunteers ensuring fruit is intercepted at the alcohol check point.

MPI Director General Martyn Dunne, MPI staff Andrew Sander and Stephen Wheeler check QFF response preparations ahead of the NZ vs Australia Cricket World Cup match.

Fruit fly signage at Zone B boundary

Fruit fly signage at entrance to fruit & veg shop

Staff briefing at response HQ, prior to Cricket World Cup match

Fruit fly signage at train station, Eden Park

Morning operations briefing

Collecting windfall fruit

Fruit fly signage

Checking collected fruit

Survey teams at HQ

Morning briefing

An Auckland Council civil defence volunteer speaks with public to gauge awareness at Grey Lynn supermarket

Signage explaining 'tick and cross' movement control system at fruit & veg shop

Fruit collection bins outside fruit & veg shop

Fruit collection bin within Zone A

Matt Dyck, KVH, establishing a fruit fly trap

Fruit fly traps in host trees

Surveillance teams logging and tagging host plants

Tagged host plants

Rotten, windfall & shaken fruit, collected & bagged

Fruit fly signage in Zone B and at Zone B boundary

Spray/baiting units

MPI calling card

Surveillance team on the ground