

Workshop on Spotted Lanternfly

Plant & Food Research is organising workshops on preparedness for Spotted Lanternfly (SLF) arrival in New Zealand.

An informational webinar and discussion on SLF impacts and management with Associate Professor Julie Urban from Pennsylvania State University.

Location	Date	Time	Venue (*morning tea will be provided at full workshops)
Te Puke	28/07/2021	9 AM–12.30 PM	Plant & Food Research, 412 No 1 Road*
Hawke's Bay	24/08/2021	9 AM–12.30 PM	Plant & Food Research, 30 Crosses Road*
Motueka	14/09/2021	9 AM–12.30 PM	Plant & Food Research, 55 Old Mill Road*
Blenheim	15/09/2021	9 AM–12.30 PM	Plant & Food Research, 85 Budge Street*
Clyde	28/09/2021	3 PM–5 PM	Rugby Club, 10 Whitby Street (Introduction)
	29/09/2021	9 AM–11.30 AM	Plant & Food Research, 990 Earnsclough Road*

 Manoharie.Sandanayaka@plantandfood.co.nz
Jacqui.Todd@plantandfood.co.nz bit.ly/2RjeSOC

plantandfood.co.nz

SLF is a serious invasive pest, feeding on over 80 different plant species including grapes, apples, apricots, cherries, cucumber, hops, nectarines, peaches, poplar, pine and willow. Learn how you could help to stop its establishment if it accidentally arrives in New Zealand.